FITNESS FOR PLACEMENT

The current legal requirements for working with children and young people can be found at: <https://students.flinders.edu.au/my-course/placements/compliance/education#handbooks>

PSTs need to demonstrate fitness to undertake placement. These requirements may include health, other checks, or a self-declaration as to the fitness of an individual to undertake a placement.

Any such checks or declarations must be accepted by the University as reasonable and then must be:

- Applicable to all University PSTs involved in such placements,
- Related to the requirements of the duties or functions to be carried out in the placement,
- Consistent with University Policy and Commonwealth and State Government Legislation relating to equal opportunity and discrimination.

A pre-service teacher who cannot demonstrate fitness to undertake the placement or who refuses to undertake a required check or make a self-declaration may be refused placement.

Where there is a pre-existing medical or other condition such that the ability to practice may be impaired, the PST will provide an access plan and discuss the circumstances with the Academic Coordinator/Director of Professional Experience so, that where possible, reasonable adjustments can be considered and applied. The PST may wish to discuss this with the University Disability Liaison Officer in the first instance.

For further information regarding the University WIL policy, fitness for placement, please read the following document:

<https://www.flinders.edu.au/content/dam/documents/staff/policies/academic-students/work-integrated-learning-policy.pdf>

FLINDERS UNIVERSITY HEALTH AND COUNSELLING SERVICES Tel 8201 2118

Confidential and professional health, counselling and disability services are available to all currently enrolled Flinders University Students, including those studying completely online. Priority will be given to PSTs if they indicate that they are on placement. More information regarding booking appointments can be found at: <https://students.flinders.edu.au/support/hcd>

PRE-SERVICE TEACHER RESPONSIBILITIES

As a representative of Flinders University, PSTs must behave in a professional and courteous manner. Therefore, PSTs are expected to:

- provide the Site Coordinator with their Introduction Form
- use their Flinders email and include an email signature block on all correspondence
- show the school a copy of their WWCC, RRHAN-EC and vaccination status (if requested) on their first visit. PSTs that cannot produce this certification upon arrival will not be able to commence placement.
- wear their name badge on all school visits
- be at school from 8am-4pm as a minimum, each day (unless directed otherwise by the school)
- be punctual and remain at the school for yard duties and before and after school staff meetings
- dress professionally in neat, clean and appropriate clothing and footwear
- ensure that the school has their contact details, including email address, mobile phone number and emergency contact information (form p.11)
- advise the placement office if their University Liaison has not made contact by the middle of week one of the placement block
- respond, in a timely manner, to contact from their University Liaison
- negotiate responsibilities with their mentor teacher in accordance with school and University expectations
- notify the school between 7.30-8.00 am if they are ill. Please Note: PSTs will need to negotiate with the school coordinator, to make up any days missed
- provide mentor/s with their unit and lesson plans well ahead of teaching to ensure adequate time for feedback
- provide their mentor/s with a lesson plan for every lesson taught
- listen openly, reflect and act on mentor, liaison, and school coordinator feedback
- undertake the interim review process with their mentor and provide copies together with their Professional Learning Plan to their University Liaison
- only use mobile phones during break times and move to a private area. Discuss with their mentor teacher if they need to answer their phone in class, due to an emergency
- discuss with mentors all aspects of the placement handbook and assessment processes and timelines and download relevant templates from the professional experience website
- thank and show appreciation to all school staff for their support during their placement.

Make a full-time commitment to your placement.

It is not permissible to negotiate a late arrival, a day off or an early departure.

You are expected to be there every day, ready to teach and ready to learn.

Maintain your wellbeing so that you can cope with the demands of teaching.

SUCCESS CRITERIA

According to the Standards Developmental Continuum (page 29) emerging level of performance, towards the end of placement PSTs will be able to:

- articulate knowledge of students in their class/es and how they learn
- plan and effectively teach using the Australian Curriculum (or equivalent)
- self-assess and address gaps in their professional knowledge and practice
- undertake professional discussions on how classroom management and teaching methodologies impact student learning and wellbeing
- apply research from academic studies to planning and teaching
- plan appropriate and challenging learning experiences for all students, with increasing independence and effectiveness
- identify teaching and learning approaches that have a positive influence on student wellbeing, engagement and achievement
- use some educational adjustments to support student learning needs
- use a range of assessment methods to determine student learning progress and achievement
- record student learning to inform planning and decision making
- create a positive and inclusive learning environment for students over an extended period
- develop and maintain professional relationships with staff, students, and parents/caregivers
- describe with evidence, how their teaching has responded to student learning and mentor feedback over time.)
- articulate their effectiveness, as a teacher, against the emerging level of the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers
- behave in a manner that displays knowledge and understanding in accordance with the professional and ethical requirements of a teacher in an Australian school
- demonstrate originality, creativity, and risk taking in their teaching
- demonstrate significant growth in teaching and professional skills over the placement.

PLACEMENT ASSESSMENT

The following must be met to pass the topic:

- Final report rated as satisfactory or higher.
- On-time submission of two Journal Entries, Goal Setting Planner for APST Standard 1 and an annotated lesson plan to the EDUC3642/9233/9140 FLO site

PSTs are required to gather evidence of their impact on student learning while on placement. To gather this evidence, PSTs will need to ask critical and reflective questions for example:

- Who are the students in my class, what influences their learning and development, and how does this knowledge help me plan for effective learning and teaching?
Am I making a difference to student learning and achievement and how do I know?
- Am I inclusive of and responsive to student diversity- abilities, cultures, languages, gender, and socio- economic backgrounds?

TASK 1

Set up a Digital Journal – This will become your Teaching Performance Assessment (TPA) journal for your final year placement.

Use this journal to document your observations and insights regarding:

How do teachers design effective teaching and learning programs with consideration of students' backgrounds and abilities? (Description)

What learning theories and approaches support your observations about effective teaching and learning? (Analysis)

How does this help you understand students, their learning and yourself as a beginning teacher? What have you learnt on placement and how can you improve your teaching practice? (Conclusions)

Both journal entries are to be approximately 300 words in length and should demonstrate critical reflection on your learning.

TASK 2

Use the Goal Setting Planner provided on the topic FLO site to review APST Standard One and identify the evidence you currently have for this standard. What evidence will you need to gather to achieve the Graduate level during your final professional experience? Set yourself, clear, realistic, specific goals for each focus area.

Please note that PSTs must respect school and student privacy by de-identifying all information and evidence.

TASK 3

Upload a lesson plan for a lesson you have planned and taught. Include annotations about what worked well, what you could have done differently?

TASK SUBMISSION

Upload your two journal entries, lesson plan and the Goal Setting Planner (Standard one only) as one document onto the EDUC 3642/9233 FLO site.

DUE DATE: Within two weeks of placement completion

PREPARATION FOR PLACEMENT

During the 5 planning days PSTs can undertake the following:

- Find out about school policies (such as assessment and behaviour management) and strategic plans, curriculum documents, extra-curricular activities, the school community etc.
- Discuss your upcoming teaching load and timetable with your mentor/s. What subjects you will be expected to teach, the year level Australian Curriculum achievement standards you will be planning for and the resources you will need.
- Get to know the students you will be teaching. Find out their names, interests, abilities, cultural and language backgrounds, special needs, and/or preferred ways of learning.
- Observe your mentor and other teachers and document how they build professional relationships with students. What effective teaching and learning strategies do they use?
- Negotiate an area for planning and preparation.
- Seek permission to access unit and lesson plans designed by the Department/school/mentor to ascertain ways of planning for effective teaching and learning
- Negotiate preferred unit and lesson plan formats. Examples are provided on FLO (and in this Handbook) and the school may offer other effective examples.
- Arrange a preferred communication system between you and your mentor/s: email, phone, weekly face-to-face meetings etc.
- Discuss with your mentor/s what you hope to achieve on this placement. How will you contribute to class and school programs?
- Demonstrate an open-minded attitude and willingness to learn and improve.
- Complete the Emergency Contact Form (page 11) and provide this to the school coordinator.

ADDITIONAL SUGGESTED ACTIVITIES FOR PLANNING DAYS

Gather knowledge about the school and class context		(tick if completed)
School Orientation (guided tour)
Record the weekly timetable
Obtain a list of the students in each class
Gather knowledge for teaching
Record some 'routine' teacher instructions for 'managing' students
Seek permission to access information about general strengths of the class in relation to learning and achievement (assessment and wellbeing data)
Tour the Resource Centre to browse and locate resources. Introduce yourself to staff and become familiar with how to borrow and access resources
Work with individual and small groups of students.
Observe and document instructional, social and behaviour strategies used; note strategies/approaches for individual students and groups
Observe and record the 'flow' of lessons from different subject areas, across each day and the week. How does the teacher manage changes in students' activities?
Working with your Mentor Teacher
Undertake yard duties with your mentor teacher
Shadow a specialist teacher for a day (if appropriate)
Attend staff meetings
Write down questions to ask your mentor teacher/s at an appropriate time. Discuss plans to begin teaching from at least day one of your block

FLINDERS UNIVERSITY: EMERGENCY CONTACT FORM

This information is confidential. School Coordinators are asked to shred this form at the conclusion of the placement.

PSTs, please give this form to your Site Coordinator and discuss your individual circumstances. In the case of an emergency, the school will follow the advice provided by you.

THE ROLE OF THE UNIVERSITY LIAISON

A University Liaison is allocated to each pre-service teacher. The University Liaison will:

- facilitate communication between all parties involved in the placement
- work with PSTs to identify and discuss professional issues
- observe PSTs teaching, provide verbal and written feedback, and support their planning, teaching and assessment,
- be available to discuss the progress of PSTs with school staff as necessary
- support the PSTs in reflecting upon and analysing the effectiveness of their practice
- monitor the interim review process
- manage and liaise with the University Academic Coordinator if issues of concern arise
- if necessary, complete an At-Risk form and offer strategies to the PST for improvement
- explain the reporting system to site staff
- coordinate and add comments regarding student performance to the final report
- ensure comments are added to the final report

Before the first visit, the University Liaison will:

- contact the PST, School Coordinator and mentor to negotiate suitable times to observe the first lesson and to meet with them

During Visit 1 the University Liaison will:

- sight the PST's 'Record of School Visits' to confirm the completion of the 5 full planning days
- observe the PSTs teaching a lesson, provide constructive written feedback and advice
- meet with the mentor(s) and School Coordinator to discuss the PST's progress & the Interim Review and, if there are concerns, discuss the At-Risk process.

During Visit 2 the University Liaison will:

- observe the PSTs teaching a lesson and provide constructive written feedback on the overall teaching performance, areas of growth observed and next steps for learning
- discuss and negotiate with the mentor and school coordinator the final report assessment

Assessment and Reporting

Towards the end of the placement, site coordinators will receive a link for an online report to add their comments. Then mentor teachers, University Liaisons and Pre-service teachers will be able to add their comments.

Please note that in some country and interstate locations University Liaisons will not be able to visit the school and will instead provide distance support.

WITHDRAWAL FROM PLACEMENT

Please note, that withdrawing before or during a placement has consequences. If a PST withdraws from their placement, the opportunity and timing for repeating a placement will be dependent on the reasons for withdrawal and their revised study plan. An out-of-step study plan usually means that the course completion date is extended by at least 6-12 months. PSTs may need to provide medical documentation outlining their fitness to undertake future placements.

VOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL FROM PLACEMENT

Pre-Service Teachers who wish to withdraw from placement need to:

- firstly, discuss their circumstances with the Site Coordinator and/or mentor teacher,
- seek further advice on the implications of this decision from the University Professional Experience Academic Coordinator.
- return any borrowed materials such as keys, textbooks, student work etc. to the school
- email Jackie Thomson, and Haylee Scott outlining the reasons for withdrawal. See email addresses on page 3 of this handbook.
- confirm withdrawal from placement in writing with the University Liaison and School Coordinator
- formally withdraw from placement through the Flinders University Student Enrolment system
- depending on the circumstances a meeting may be organised with the Director of Professional Experience and Course Coordinator to discuss next steps.

IMPOSED WITHDRAWAL FROM PLACEMENT

The Director of Professional Experience, Academic Coordinator or placement site may withdraw a Pre-Service Teacher from placement at any time if after due instruction and guidance, the PST is consistently unable to perform satisfactorily with an appropriate and/or attainable degree of supervision from the mentor and/or others with respect to:

1. Teaching performance: despite adequate, timely feedback from the mentor or others, the PST is unable to develop a sufficient level of independence with the majority of core roles and responsibilities reasonably required
2. The PST breaches the legal, ethical, or professional codes of conduct of the organisation providing the placement.
3. The PST demonstrates gross negligence or misconduct in the performance of an assigned duty; or the Pre-Service Teacher performs in a manner detrimental to self or others.
4. The placement provider is unable to maintain an appropriate placement experience for the PST.

Where a PST is withdrawn for reasons 1-3 listed above, a FAIL grade will be recorded against the topic irrespective of whether this occurs before or after the topic census date.

Where a PST's placement is terminated because of reason 4 the PST will be assisted to find an alternative placement as soon as practicable and will receive an Interim (I) grade against the topic.

UNSATISFACTORY PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: AT RISK and FAIL

During the Interim Review process, a PST may be issued with an At-Risk notification. This is not a Fail but indicates issues of concern and that improvement is needed. However, if at the end of the Professional Experience the PST's performance is deemed to be Unsatisfactory, a Fail (F) grade will be given by the University for the topic.

A PST who fails a placement:

- is contacted to meet with the Secondary Course Coordinator and Director of Professional Experience
- is advised of the process to apply to repeat the topic, if applicable
- must apply in writing for permission to repeat a placement indicating a clear plan for improvement against the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers (APSTs). This will be assessed by the Director of Professional Experience, and if approved, the PST will be granted permission for a repeat placement and will need to request a new study plan from askflinders@flinders.edu.au

GUIDELINES FOR THE 4 WEEK TEACHING BLOCK

This is a suggestion only for developmental learning experiences and tasks for the pre-service teacher as they develop confidence and assume an approximate 60% teaching role

LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

- recording of observations and experiences
- teaching individual students or small groups
- practise teaching a whole class
- collecting evidence of teaching impact on student learning
- accepting and acting on performance feedback
- interaction as a beginning professional with members of the school community
- discussion and reflection with the Mentor Teacher and University Liaison.

WEEK 1

- Teach 1- 2 lessons per day from week 1
- Plan lessons and discuss them with the mentor teacher/s well in advance
- Be involved in classroom observations and discussions with the mentor teacher/s
- Reflect on teaching performance with the mentor teacher/s
- Plan for teaching in week 2.

WEEK 2

- Assume greater teaching responsibility
- Plan for and teach at least 2 lessons per day
- Continue to observe, discuss, reflect, and plan with mentor teacher
- Plan for an increased teaching load in week 3
- Undertake the Interim Report process with the mentor/s

WEEKS 3 and 4

- Plan units of work and lessons and discuss with the mentor teacher/s well in advance
- Teach approximately 60% of a fulltime teacher's load (between 700 and 800 minutes per week). PSTs will move at different rates into the minimum 60% teaching role, some may assume this sooner than others.

INFORMATION FOR THE MENTOR TEACHER/S

Thank you for mentoring a Flinders' pre-service teacher (PST). The following is an overview of the 25-day placement and some suggestions for mentoring if you are new to this process.

Pre-Service Teachers will undertake 5 planning days in their placement school prior to the placement block. During this time, they will not have a University Liaison assigned to them.

DURING THE 5 PLANNING DAYS

Expectations for the 5 planning days are flexible and should be guided by your needs and the needs of the PST. However, during these days it would be helpful if you could:

- make clear your expectations concerning the preparation of units and lesson plans; discuss the topics the PST will be teaching and your preferred way of planning
- introduce the PST to staff, show them around the school and where to locate relevant school documents/resources and make time to answer any initial questions
- introduce them to the students they will be teaching over the first 4 weeks
- discuss and review the PST's timetable and proposed planning of lessons and unit/s of work
- provide feedback regarding strengths and improvements needed.
- encourage the PST to observe and discuss how you plan, prepare, and manage student issues (learning, wellbeing, and behaviour). Invite them to ask questions about your practice, classroom management strategies and educational philosophy.

4 WEEK CONTINUOUS BLOCK OF TEACHING

At the commencement of the 4-week block, the PST may be at an early level of competency in relation to classroom management, lesson planning, instruction, and timing. Only undergraduate PSTs have had a previous 15-day placement. For Master of Teaching PSTs this is their first placement. It would support their confidence and development if you could:

- give guidance on all aspects of teaching performance
- support the PST to gather evidence of the impact of their teaching
- give specific verbal and written feedback as required on unit planning, delivery of lessons, classroom management procedures and professional relationships
- complete the Interim Review
- use the Novice to Graduate assessment tool as a basis for discussions with your PST and for the interim review and final report
- contact the University Liaison at any time if you have any concerns regarding the learning, teaching and/or behaviour of the PST
- complete and submit the Final Report comments when you receive the report link you're your site coordinator.

REPORTING TIMELINE

TERM 2: Monday 3rd July Professional Experience planning days may start (or be added to the block). This depends on the school's preference.

TERM 3: Monday 24 July 4-week placement block typically begins

Week 1 University Liaison contacts PSTs, school coordinator and mentor teachers to arrange first school visit

Week 2 University Liaison observes teaching

Week 2/3 Interim Review (mentor teacher) and Interim Self-Assessment (pre-service teacher) undertaken for discussion.

Copies of Interim Review and Interim Self-Assessment forwarded to University Liaison

Week 3/4 University Liaison observes teaching and negotiates with mentor teacher/s and site coordinator regarding assessment for final report

Links for final reports sent to and completed by site coordinator, mentor teacher/s, University Liaison and pre-service teacher (following placement).

REPORTING PROCESS

The Third Year Undergraduate and First Year Master of Teaching PSTs are assessed against the emerging level of the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers (APST) Developmental Continuum.

The Interim Review. The PST will independently undertake a self-assessment, and then compare their self-assessment with the mentor's assessment by the beginning of week 3. Templates are available for mentors, and PSTs.

RESOURCES: PLANNING for TEACHING

Planning for learning and teaching encompasses the following components:

- Curriculum content and knowledge
- Classroom management
- Resources and materials
- Interpersonal and intrapersonal skills
- Knowledge of human development
- Planning skills
- Teaching and learning strategies.

The PST should undertake sequential unit planning and lesson planning.

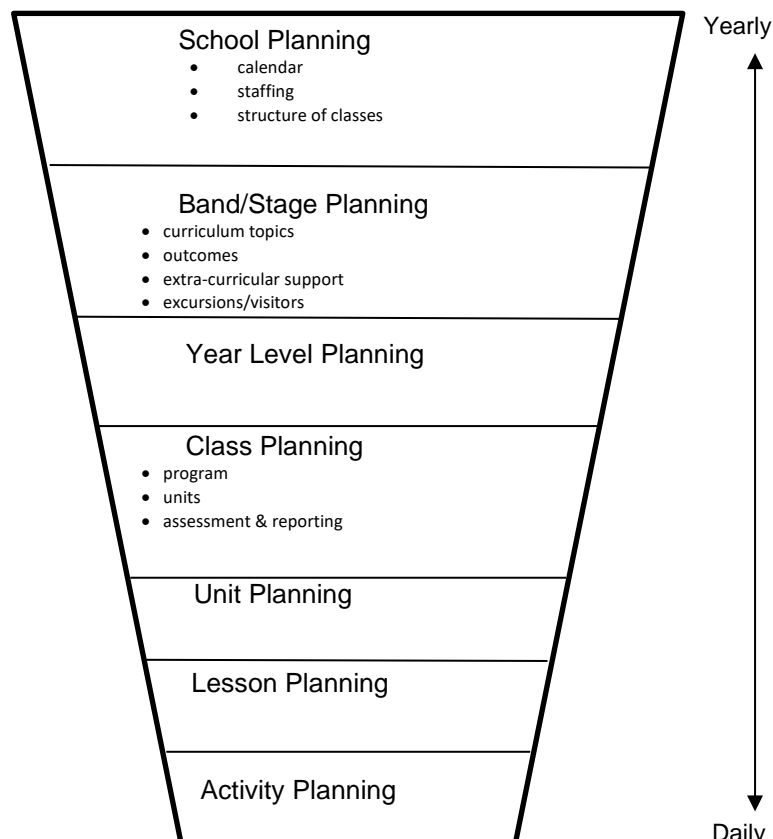

Unit Planning

The unit plan considers all learning and teaching that will occur over a period, – usually weeks or possibly for a term. It takes account of the abilities and year levels of students and is often planned by a team of teachers who share their knowledge and experience and may be teaching different classes at that year level. The pre-service teacher can participate in planning for their teaching in Term 3, informed and guided by their mentor teacher(s).

Lesson planning

A lesson plan is an outline of intended teaching with resources and sequential, differentiated learning experiences. These different levels of planning cannot happen in isolation and the pre-service teacher is expected to demonstrate the ability to plan at both levels during their teaching practice. They can be understood as the three lower levels of planning on the following diagram: (Ref: Whitton et al (2010). Learning for teaching, teaching for learning. Cengage Learning, Australia, p131)

LESSON PLANNING

There are many approaches to developing lesson plans and the following are examples only. Mentor teachers and university topics may provide other examples. As the pre-service teacher develops expertise, they may not need to write up every lesson in as much detail. However, the ability to effectively plan for student learning is critical so lesson plans are expected.

The lesson outcomes are clear statements of what students should be able to know, understand and do at the end of the lesson based on the Australian Curriculum.

The lesson intentions describe in student friendly language what they will learn in terms of knowledge, understandings, and skills within the lesson.

The lesson content is what students will be taught to achieve the desired outcomes.

The lesson introduction encompasses gaining learner attention, stimulating motivation, explaining the purpose of the lesson, and reviewing prior knowledge.

The teaching-learning phase includes specific teaching and learning activities such as explicit teaching, demonstration and/or guided exploration as students work in groups or individually

Examples of lesson-planning templates that pre-service teachers may use for their lesson planning are provided.

SUPPORTING INCLUSIVITY AND STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

Gathering knowledge about the diversity of students in your class/es during the planning days will support you to develop lessons that foster inclusion and engagement. This table may support your observations and recording about student diversity.

Examples of student diversity/needs	Learner diversity in the class	Possible adjustments
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ATSI • EALD • Socio-economic • Disability • Disengaged • Mental health/trauma. • Rural or remote • Learning disability • Neurobehavioral (ADD, ADHD) • Gender • Gifted & Talented

REFLECTIVE QUESTIONS FOR LESSON PLANNING (EXAMPLE)

When preparing a lesson plan, consider the following questions:

- What do I want the students to know, understand and do?
- Why is this important? How will I know if they have learnt it?
- Is the content and flow of my lesson organised into a logical sequence?
- Have I selected and used appropriate resources so that all students can access and engage in the planned tasks reasonably independently?
- Have I planned effectively for students who already have prior knowledge of the subject matter?
- Do my resources consider the needs of students whose literacy/numeracy abilities are not yet at year level?
- Is the lesson inclusive of students' interest and learning preferences?
- What previous feedback do I need to consider?

PRE-SERVICE TEACHER DEVELOPMENTAL ASSESSMENT GUIDE

PURPOSE

Based on the APST, this document provides a developmental learning process for pre-service teachers at Flinders University. PSTs and mentors are encouraged to use this assessment tool to validate current performance against the Standards.

These assessment guidelines have been developed with the following in mind:

- Novice level is the performance line for preservice teachers in their 2nd year of the Undergraduate degree (first placement)
- Emerging level is the performance line for preservice teachers in Year 3 Undergraduate (2nd placement) and Master of Teaching Year 1 (1st placement)
- Graduate level is the performance aim line for preservice teachers in their final year placement

Please note: While it is highly desirable that PSTs demonstrate the required level against every focus area, a successful professional experience should be considered at around 85 - 90% of Standard focus areas achieved to recognise the diversity of experiences and opportunities provided within a school.
