

Graduate Diploma in Chronic Condition Management

This suggested study plan must be read in conjunction with the Course Rule for the Graduate Diploma in Chronic Condition Management at:

Course Rule: <http://www.flinders.edu.au/courses/rules/postgrad/gdpccm.cfm>

Students undertake 36 units of study and the program is normally undertaken in two semesters full-time or four semesters part-time.

Four Semesters (part-time)	Semester 1 (9 units)	Core Topic MHSC8111 Managing Chronic Conditions – Self-Management Support Approaches	Core Topic MHSC8114 The Person's Experience of Self-Management
	Semester 2 (9 units)	Core Topic MHSC8112 Implementing Change in Healthcare Systems Supporting Chronic Condition Management	Core Topic MHSC8115A Chronic Conditions Management for Specific Conditions, Contexts or Populations A
	Semester 1 (9 units)	Core Topic PHCA9501 Social Determinants of Health and Wellbeing	Option Topic* MHSC8113 Education and Training for Chronic Conditions Self-Management
	Semester 2 (9 units)	Core Topic MHSC8116 Client-Centred Health Behaviour Change	Option Topic* MHSC8115B Chronic Conditions Management for Specific Conditions, Contexts or Populations B
* Or by negotiation with the Course Coordinator, a student may select relevant option topic/s from other existing postgraduate programs, including: Primary Health, Health Promotion, Disability Studies, Point of Care Testing, General Practice Nursing, Clinical Rehabilitation, Health Administration, Remote Health.

This document is accurate as at 15 November 2018